SUFFRAGISTS TO TRY FOR VOTE IN SENATE

Advocates to Seek Test on Amendment Next Week.
Following the Republican National Committee's reaffirmation of the party's devotion to the woman suffrage cause, Senate suffrage advocates will try to get a vote next week on the amendment.
Passage by the New Hampshire legislature of a resolution favoring suffrage is expected to win the vote of Senator Moore. He announced he would support the amendment if introduced to do so by the people of his State.
One more vote is needed, if Senator Moore is counted for suffrage. Anti-suffragists say this additional vote cannot be obtained.

HUNS FAIL TO REMOVE MINES IN NORTH SEA

U. S. and England to Clear Field at Expense of Enemy.
Germany has failed to remove her mines from the North and Baltic Seas, it was learned in British naval circles here yesterday.
Their removal by the Germans was stipulated in the armistice terms and it is indicated that the United States and Great Britain will proceed to clear the Teuton minefields at the expense of Germany following the German-Allied Entente conference at Treves.
Refusal of German sailors to embark on mine sweeper after the armistice, it is declared, is the reason given by the Germans for their failure to take up the mines.

Bury Mother of Heroes from Home Here Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Eckley West Rockwell, who died Tuesday night at her home at the Dresden, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late home. Mrs. Rockwell, who was 71 years old and lived in this city for the last nine years, had been ill almost a year before her death.
Mrs. Rockwell is survived by Helen Rockwell and Lieut. Col. Charles R. Rockwell, who is over at Obolens, where he is chief officer in the gas division of the United States army. He was among the first men in the House during the Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson administrations. Another son, James B. Rockwell, who was killed in an airplane accident at Pensacola, Fla., was among the first men in the naval service to lose his life in an airplane accident.

FOR COLDS AND GRIPPE FOLLOW DOCTORS' ADVICE

Ask any physician or druggist and he will tell you that the first step in the treatment of a cold, cough or grippe should be "a brisk cathartic purgative, preferably the nauseous emollient tablet called Calotabs." This alone is often sufficient to break up a severe cold over night, or shorten an attack of grippe and possibly prevent pneumonia.
One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasures or work. Next morning your cold has vanished and your entire system feels purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists everywhere. Price refunded if you are not delighted—Adv.

LEAVES $2,000 TO HER CHURCH

Widow of Restaurateur Also Establishes Fund for Graves.

The Concordia Church (German Evangelical Lutheran) of this city, is to receive $2,000 in accordance with a provision in the will of Mrs. Emma Alschwee, widow of the late Henry Alschwee, a well known restaurateur of this city, which was filed for probate December 11, 1918.
Mrs. Alschwee died January 14, and made her will a few days before her death.
A sister, Jennie Petersen, is directed to sell all of the estate and divide the proceeds in strict accordance with the will.
Out of the proceeds the German Orphan Asylum of this city is to receive $1,000. The Martha Washington Club, of which Mrs. Alschwee was a member for thirty-six years, is bequeathed $1,000.
A diamond brooch, containing a portrait of her husband, is bequeathed to a sister-in-law, Marie Dobberschütz, of Osnabrook, Germany.
Margie Truger, of Fuchtelgebirge, Over Franks, Bavaria, Germany, is bequeathed $3,000. William Hoyer, of Baltimore, is bequeathed $1,000. Johanna G. Mueller, also of Baltimore, is bequeathed $1,000.
Mills Petersen Vorkoefer and Carl Petersen are each bequeathed $1,000. Mrs. Maude Fenton is bequeathed $500. Prospect Hill Cemetery is bequeathed an amount necessary for the perpetual care of the graves of the Alschwee and Petersen families. The sister, Annie Petersen, is named executrix.
The will of Laura Wilson Caldwell, who died recently, after a long residence in St. Louis, Mo., provides that a son, Albert Caldwell, and a daughter, Mabel Caldwell, receive $100 each. The balance of the estate is bequeathed to her husband, Fred A. Caldwell, who is also named executor.
The entire estate of Mrs. Josephine Hendley is left to her husband, James W. Hendley. The will stipulates that the husband shall have the right to sell, lease, mortgage, and convey all other property and money, and to the husband, who is also named executor.
Ellis Strick, widow of John Strick, who died December 27, is named sole executrix and executrix without bond in the will of Mrs. Strick, filed yesterday for probate. The will provides that all debts must be paid out of the estate.

CUMMINGS TO SUCCEED VANCE M'CORMICK

Vice Chairman of Democratic National Committee to Move Up.
Leaders in Democratic councils here yesterday were unanimous in electing Cummings to succeed Vance M'Cormick as vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee at a meeting to be held here February 26 to select a successor to Vance M'Cormick.
Members of the committee in discussing the situation were agreed that a member of the committee would be chosen as chairman and that Cummings would be undoubtedly be asked to take the place.
The name of Joseph G. Guffey, Democratic State chairman, of Pennsylvania, and director of sales for the alien custodian, was put forward yesterday as a possibility. Mr. Guffey is a friend of President Wilson and received his endorsement during the governorship fight in Pennsylvania. It was pointed out, however, that Mr. Guffey is not a member of the National Committee and his extensive oil interests are such that he would be unable to devote his entire time to the interests of his party.

GREGORY'S SUCCESSOR MAY BE GEO. C. TODD

Sherman Whipple and Houston Thompson Also Named.
Administration leaders agreed yesterday that George Carroll Todd, of New York and Virginia, is the foremost possibility for appointment as successor to Attorney General Gregory. Mr. Todd is now assistant to the Attorney General, and has been recommended for the position by Mr. Gregory.
The other names mentioned in the order of popular preference here are Sherman Whipple, a progressive Democrat, of Boston, and Houston Thompson, of Denver, Colo.
The success of the Democrats in Massachusetts in the recent election and the standing of Mr. Whipple in New England legal circles are put forward as evidence of his strength as a potential candidate. The loss of Colorado by the Democrats in the last election led to the suggestion that Mr. Thompson's appointment would greatly aid the party strength two years hence.

"Good Morning, Judge"
Human Interest Stories of Police Court Happenings. By RUDOLPH PERKINS

The "Inflammable" Iron.
Nine years' good record as a Devil Dog was all that saved Leo Wells from going to jail.
Leo was employed as a fireman at a movie theater. His business was to watch it hot for people while they watched the coldblooded villain at work.
Down in the cellar where Leo worked were some old grates, a radiator and some iron piping.
One day, Leo said, the fire marshal told him to move the stuff lest it catch fire and endanger the place.
The fire marshal denied saying that. Furthermore, there was nothing about a lot of iron to burn anyhow, the fire marshal declared.
Anyhow, Leo sold the stuff to a junk dealer and got $6 for it. He failed to turn the $6 over to his employer.
His arrest followed. His boss was peeved at him anyhow and the occurrence led the boss to that he called in Detective Barber.
The junk dealer was called in and he told the court that he bought the stuff from Leo.
That settled the case. Leo was found guilty, but announced his willingness to reimburse his former employer.
And so the court, upon consideration of his previous good record, etc., suspended a thirty-day sentence.

An Old Stand.
On Four-and-a-half street the other night a man was standing on the car tracks, making every effort to tie up an already crippled street railway system.
Policeman Cox came along to investigate. He found that Ed. Leonard, the guy on the car tracks, was in no condition to be outdoors by himself and locked him up.
"Judge, my doctor told me to take half a bottle of Peruna every day," Ed. told Judge Hardison.
"Don't you know it is against the law to get drunk on Peruna?" asked the court. "Besides, Four-and-a-half street is no place to buy Peruna, anyhow."
"Well, I was only down" what the doctor ordered," explained Ed.
"You were overdoing it," said the court. "You had better tear up the prescription for Peruna and quit drinking it."
Ed. may have been drinking real Peruna for all we know. But sometimes the real booze comes in camouflaged bottles, and it is possible that some one played a joke on him.

The Old Gag Falls.
Some boys sure have a lot of nerve.
Three of them went into a tobacco store on Pennsylvania avenue between Tenth and Eleventh streets northwest, on December 13 supposedly to buy a pipe.
One of them, Bill Carwell, stood guard at the cash register, while the other two enticed the clerk to one side.
While the clerk was showing his two pals a pipe, Bill opened the cash register and pounced on a helpless $20 bill.
The clerk suddenly decided that they didn't need a pipe and called to Bill to go on out with them.
The clerk, however, was wise. He called Bill. Bill ran.
The clerk ran, too, and when he caught him, Bill smashed him one in the face. The other two got away.

The Man Pays.
The $20 bill was found on Bill and Policeman Perkins (not Rudolph) of No. 1 precinct was called in.
Of course, Bill denied it. But the customers who were in the store at the time, saw the whole thing and they appeared against him.
The whole thing appeared to the court to be a pretty bold stunt. The avenue was full of people at the time.
Men have gone to the penitentiary for doing less than Bill did, but fortunately he got off very light.
He shouldn't abuse the cops.
Tuesday night, while he was patrolling Fourth street, Policeman Roane saw a man limping along and having a great deal of trouble navigating.
"What's the matter, my man," asked Roane when he caught up with him.
"Are you hurt?"
"None of your damn business," snarled Harry Gray, the man. "You cops make me sick. A man can't even walk along the street without you guys bothering him."
"You needn't be sassy," said Barber. "I though you were hurt. It is my business to look out for people who can't do it for themselves."
"Harry cut loose again and abused Roane something fierce. He used every profane word he could think of.
Ordinarily Roane has a good disposition and is not easily riled. But this time it got his goat.
And so he had to lock Harry up in some defenseless man that didn't stop him from cursing.
"He was the most profane man I ever saw," Roane told the court. "He straddled me like a real Prussian would."
Harry said he didn't remember it. If he did say such things, he told the court, he must have been picked.
Twenty dollars is what it cost him.

Bible Classes Plan GET TOGETHER RALLY
Maj. A. J. Drexel Biddle to Address Rally at Calvary Church.
Bible classes from the District of Columbia and the surrounding community will have a big get-together rally Sunday afternoon at the Calvary Baptist Church at 3 o'clock.
This announcement was made yesterday by Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, chief director of the District.
A message from the first line will be delivered by Maj. A. J. Drexel Biddle, founder of the Drexel Biddle Bible Class movement, lately returned from the trenches in France. Lieut. Edward Armstrong, Platt, of the Marine Corps, who has seen service in several wars, will also tell his experiences.
Addresses on their Bible class work will also be given by E. H. Mills, director of religious work; Maj. H. F. Wilson, managing director, and Rev. Dr. Edward D. Schaefer, of Baltimore, Md., pastor and teacher of one of the largest male adult Bible classes in the United States.

BIG DECREASE NOTED IN DAY'S "FLU" RECORD

Only 44 Cases Are Reported As Against 144 on Tuesday.
Yesterday's total of new influenza cases showed a big decrease, 100 fewer cases being reported to the District Health Office than the previous day. Yesterday's new cases were only 44, as compared with 144 for the previous day.
Deaths from influenza are also gradually decreasing in number, although the decrease is not yet at all comparable to the decrease in new cases. Ten deaths were reported to the Health Office yesterday, as compared with ten the previous day. Pneumonia deaths reported to the Health Office yesterday totaled 7.
A total of 925 new cases of influenza were reported for the week ending January 11, with 87 deaths during the same period.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns.
Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?
"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot torture—Adv.

Butter, Eggs and Cheese Stocks in Storage Low

Reports of marked shortage in cold storage stocks of butter, eggs and cheese do not foreshadow any immediate relief of present high prices of these food commodities.
Figures just announced by the United States Bureau of Markets show there are 7,600,000 fewer pounds of butter than at this time a year ago. The shortage in eggs amounts to 55,000,000 cases and of cheese to 55,000,000 pounds compared with last year's storage supplies.
Stocks of poultry, however, show an increase of 58 per cent, the total holding on the first of the year being 105,917,250 pounds.
More Cold Storage Poultry.
Poultry held in cold storage January 1 showed an increase of 58 per cent compared with stocks a year ago. The Bureau of Markets announced yesterday.

DON'T TIP ASH COLLECTORS

Head of Street Cleaning Department Asks All to Heed Advice.

"As it is now, John Smith, at one end of a block, is liberal in his tips. Consequently the ash collectors go out of their way to serve him. They go into his cellar, which they are forbidden to do, to get out the cans, knowing that they will receive something extra for the extra work. William Jones, at the other end of the block, does not tip. The ash men, knowing this skip him altogether for days at a time, or they handle his ash cans carelessly, ruining the cans and spilling ashes over the walks and yards, and often curse Jones when he remonstrates.
"The ash collectors are paid for the work they do. Their pay comes out of the pockets of District taxpayers. Every resident of the District is entitled to the same service as every other resident—just that much and no more. If some, because of liberal tips, get more and better service than is given to those who do not tip, the taxpayers are simply robbing their non-tipping neighbors of service for which they have paid and to which they are entitled.
"Refusal of everybody to give tips for service that is already being paid for would bring about an improvement in the service for everybody. But as long as some persons persist in giving gratuities for service for which the taxpayers already are paying, just that long some will be favored to the detriment of many others."

Capt. Taylor charges that Capt. Murphey alienated the affections of his wife, Maybelle Lee Taylor.
On December 23 last, Capt. Taylor sued his wife for an absolute divorce, charging misconduct. In his later suit, he charges that Capt. Murphey lured her away from her home with subsequent injury to his social reputation.
